

Did you know that Houston drinking water has elevated levels of the carcinogen chromium-6?

This year the Rice iGEM team's project is to build bioremediating bacteria that can reduce Cr(VI) to the much less toxic Cr(III).

Learn more about our project at our wiki:

