

Dania Kaddoura

dkaddour@qatar.cmu.edu | kaddouradania@gmail.com | (974)-5528-9498

OVERVIEW A rising third year Biological Sciences student at CMU who is very ambitious about Genetic counseling and medicine.

EDUCATION Carnegie Mellon University Qatar, QA
Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences Sep.2017-Present

SKILLS Lab: sterile techniques, preparing media, filtration, titration, chemistry and biology lab skills
Computer: Office suites, presentation softwares, spreadsheets, communications and collaboration tools
Software: Python, Rhino (3D designing)
Languages: Arabic (Native), English (Fluent), French (Beginner)

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE Cell Biology: role of p38 in insulin signaling using western blotting and immunodetection, we studied to check if p38 is involved in insulin signaling in C2C12 cells.

Organic Chemistry: percentage purity of iron in milk formula
We studied the actual amount of iron in different types of milk formula, compared it with the labeled amount, and decided on the most suitable milk formula for toddlers, adolescents and adults.

WORK EXPERIENCE Front Desk Assistant Qatar, QA
-At Education City, Female and Male Housing Aug.2018-Present
-Updated residents' accounts and records.
-Assisted residents through check-in and check-out processes.
-Collaborated with CDAs in organizing events for the residents.

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES Global Shelters Club Head of Communication AY 2018-2019
-Collaborated with President and Co-President to manage a 2300 QR budget.
-Helped in organizing Club's events through the academic year including carnival, Letters to Syria and several others.

Sri Lanka Service Trip March 2018
- Renovated a school in Sri Lanka.
-Taught Sri Lankan children English Language.