

Science As Art

Rochester City School District School 16
University of Rochester iGEM 2020

What is science?

Science is the study and investigation of the natural world, and try to make sense of the surroundings using evidence.

What does science include?

Some examples

1. Astronomy
2. Biology
3. Physics
4. Chemistry
5. Zoology

Source: schoolwires.henry.k12.ga.us

What do scientists do?

1. Chemist: study the composition, structures and properties of substances and their reactions
2. Biologist: study life and living organisms
3. Marine Biologist: study organisms in the sea
4. Geneticist: study genetics
5. Geologist: studies the history, origin and structure of the earth
6. Zoologist: studies animal

Scientists could work in companies, hospitals, governments, non-profit organizations and many more!

Source: www.weforum.org

What is your definition of science? Lets express it through art!

Materials

1. Construction paper
2. Craft supplies
3. Crayons

